

Graduate Student Experiences with Active Learning: The Impact of Inclusive Pedagogy

Yanina, Emily, Kelly, Esther, and Patience

PASSHE

*Together We Thrive: Building Inclusive Excellence
Across the State System*

October 30, 2025

Independent Study

Yanina

- Doctorate program journey
- Active learning experience
- Inclusive pedagogy experience

Co-Authoring a Publication

- Emily and Kelly
- Two presenters will discuss their graduate experiences co-authoring a publication informed by their classroom experiences

Graduate Assistant

Esther

- My Experience with Masters education
- Communication and Collaboration with others
- Mentorship and Hands-on Research Experience

Student Researcher Experiences

- Patience (Student Researcher)
- The final discussants will explain their experiences with masters education, building research skills outside the classroom developing important graduate scholarly and professionalization skills pertinent to their future professions. This discussion will focus on how research projects outside the classroom foster professional development and how faculty can support this learning experience for graduate students.

Questions